

YOUR UMF TRANSFER CHECKLIST

FALL 2022

After you are accepted to Farmington (We've said "Yes" to you)

- farmington.edu/accepted Say Yes to UMF! Submit the enrollment deposit and the Admission Reply Form to confirm your spot in the class. Earlier confirmation results in the best class selection!
- accounts.maine.edu Set up your personal MaineStreet portal. You will need your Student ID number, username, and activation code (sent to you by email after you applied).
- gmail.maine.edu Check your "maine.edu" email, or forward it to another email that you do check. We will be sending important information to your "maine.edu" email address.
- fafsa.gov File the 2022-2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). (code 002040)
- mainestreet.maine.edu Check your MaineStreet portal for financial aid updates and other items on your "To Do" list in the Student Self-Service Center.

After you Confirm (You've said "Yes" to UMF)

- mycampus.umf.maine.edu Visit myCampus, your Farmington specific portal with a "New Student" section just for you. Use your MaineStreet username and password to sign in.
- Submit your COVID-19 vaccination records or apply for an exemption asap at umaineportal.pointnclick.com. This is in keeping with the UMS COVID-19 vaccination protocols available at farmington.edu/c19-policies.
- If you are planning to live on campus, complete the Housing Application and Room and Board License.
- Complete the Financial Terms and Conditions Agreement, located on your "To Do" list in MaineStreet. This must be done before you can be registered for classes.
- An advisor from your academic program will contact you to set up your class schedule.
- Make sure your academic transcripts have been sent, including Dual Enrollment classes, Early College classes, and AP exam results.

Orientation and Move-In Day is Friday, August 26, 2022. Classes begin on Monday, August 29, 2022.
