Application Essay

A unique feature of the MA Counseling program at UMF is the opportunity to explore the creative arts at the graduate level while simultaneously completing a program of study in the field of counseling. The program facilitates the development of counseling skills via professional clinical training and a focus on the creative arts (e.g., music, painting, creative writing). In a 500-word essay, please explain your reasons for seeking admission to this program. Feel free to discuss your experience or interests in music, creative writing, or any other art.

Recommendations

Please provide two letters of reference. These individuals should know you in a professional or educational context and speak to your abilities for graduate study.

Resume

Please provide a copy of your current resume.

Background Screening

Participants in this program will be required to satisfy a criminal background screening.
